Bartlett Businesses Found to be in Compliance During Latest Alcohol Checks

On August 21, 2009 between 7:30 pm – 9:30 pm, the Bartlett Police Department conducted its annual alcohol compliance checks at twenty four businesses located within the Village of Bartlett to determine if they were illegally selling alcoholic beverages to minors. Police found all of the businesses to be in compliance. Last year, Police cited one employee at a local business for illegally selling alcoholic beverages to minors during the alcohol compliance checks.
