21-Year-Old Bartlett Man Arrested for Spitting on a Police Officer

On December 5, 2009 the Bartlett Police Department arrested Kelley Maraviglia, 21, of 276 Lincoln Drive, Bartlett. He was later charged with a Class A Misdemeanor for Battery.

At approximately 3:20 am, Bartlett Police responded to a single-family residence in the 200 block of Lincoln Drive to check on Maraviglia's wellbeing. He allegedly spit on a police officer while the Bartlett Fire Protection District was preparing to transport him to the hospital.

Maraviglia was released on a $1,000 Individual Bond with an assigned court date of December 29, 2009 at the DuPage County court facility located in Wheaton.
