Brookfield Man Accused of Washing Paint into the Sewer System

On November 11, 2009 the Bartlett Police Department cited Timothy Moore, 40, of 8828 Burlington Avenue, Brookfield, for Pollution of a Waterway.

At approximately 1:00 pm, Police responded to the area of South Bartlett Road and Jervey Lane to investigate a report of an individual pouring paint into the street sewer. Police alleged Moore used a garden hose to wash approximately 5 gallons of latex paint that fell off the back of his vehicle into the street sewer. The Public Works Department later responded to the scene to vacuum the paint out of the sewer system.

Moore was released on his signature and assigned a court date of December 3, 2009 at 9:00 am at the Cook County court facility located in Rolling Meadows.
