Bartlett Man Accused of Being Involved in a Crash at Tallgrass Park

On January 24, 2010 the Bartlett Police Department arrested Robert A. Kling, 41, of 922 La Jolla Terrace, Bartlett. He was charged with two Class A Misdemeanors for Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol and Resisting a Peace Officer. He was also cited for Failure to Reduce Speed to Avoid an Accident, Illegal Transportation or Possession of Alcoholic Liquor – Driver, Improper Lane Usage, Operation of Uninsured Vehicle, and Failure to Give Information After Striking Unattended Vehicle or Other Property.

At approximately 6:30 pm, Bartlett Police responded to Tallgrass Park located near the 300 block of Millwood Drive to investigate a report of a speeding passenger vehicle that possibly struck a tree or a sign. During the investigation, police alleged Kling lost control of his blue colored 1994 Mercury Sable while traveling westbound on Millwood Drive. His vehicle struck a parkway tree and then damaged the turf when it drove through a portion of the park while dragging the damaged tree behind it. Bartlett Police located Kling inside his vehicle at his residence and arrested him for Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol. Police attempted to take him into custody when he allegedly resisted the arrest.

Kling was released on a $3,000 personal recognizance bail bond. He was issued a court date of February 9, 2010 at the DuPage County court facility located in Wheaton.
