POLICE OFFICER APPLICANT FACT SHEET

Training	Once hired, recruits begin a probationary period which is normally eighteen (18) months in duration, but which can be extended to twenty-four (24) months, and they are sent to a State Certified Training Academy for the Basic Law Enforcement Course. In accordance with state law, each recruit must successfully pass the State Certification Test. Once passing the state certification course, the recruit will be assigned to a specially trained Field Training Officer for additional training.
Work Schedule	Normally, Police Officers work an average of forty (40) hours per week, for a total of 2,080 hours per year. In the Patrol Section, officers work 12-hour shifts.
Benefits	The Village of Bartlett offers a comprehensive benefit package for the employee and his/her dependents, including sick leave, hospitalization, life insurance and dental insurance. Vacation and holiday benefits are also provided.
Deferred Comp	Village of Bartlett employees may participate in a deferred compensation plan.
Police Pension	All sworn Police Officers are eligible to participate in the Police Pension Fund. The officer must make a written application to the Pension Board to participate. The Police Pension Board will make a decision on whether to accept or reject the application, based on the criteria provided in the Illinois Compiled Statutes.
Voluntary Retirement	Police Officers are eligible to retire from the Police Department at age 55, with 25 years of service with the Department. (40 ILCS 5/3-111(d))
Uniforms	Personnel, on initial hiring to the Police Department, are issued initial uniforms and equipment in lieu of receiving a Uniform Allowance. Officers are required to purchase their own firearms. Each year thereafter, officers receive a uniform allowance, the amount of which is determined by the Collective Bargaining Agreement.
Appearance	All employees are expected to present a professional appearance. Body piercing, other than ear piercing, must not be visible. Visible tattoos, intentional branding and/or scarring are prohibited and may not be covered with bandages, makeup, or additional clothing while wearing a short-sleeved uniform. Restrictions are also in place for hair styles, facial hair, and any facial modifications that deviate from conventional anatomical features such as earlobe gauges, subdermal implants, tongue piercing, etc.
Wage/Salary	As of May 2016, the starting pay for a Police Officer will be $64,130. Employees are paid bi-weekly on Fridays, with twenty-six pay periods per year.
Education	The Village of Bartlett reimburses employees for college level courses taken in pursuit of a college level degree, while employed. The rate of reimbursement is dependent on the budget, type of course taken, relation to the employee's position, and grade achieved.
Holidays/Vacation	Employees are eligible for both vacation and holidays, which include personal days.
